3.0 DEFINITIONS

4.0 POLICY

4.1 To protect both the employee and the University, the University requires departments to perform exit clearances for terminated hourly employees.

5.0 PROCEDURES

5.1 Once an hourly employee is terminated, the personnel coordinator:

5.1.1 Collects all department equipment from employee.

5.1.2 Cancels computer authorization.

5.1.3 Clears employee with all applicable departments:

1) Library (overdue books/films/screens)

2) Parking Services (parking sticker/remote/tickets)

3) Business Office (bad checks/travel advances)
4) Physical Plant (keys/lockers/key codes)

5) Warehouse (linen/mailbox keys)

6) Purchasing Office (limited purchase checks)

7) Activity Center (lockers/equipment)

8) People and Culture (mark "terminated" on PAF and/or time card; note date and whether voluntary or involuntary termination)

5.1.4 Notifies employee that a final paycheck is available for pick up from the personnel coordinator upon clearance.

5.2 Adjunct faculty members are not automatically terminated at the end of each term. When a department chair determines that an adjunct faculty member will not be returning to the department, the termination proceedings outlined above should be initiated.
