5.0 PROCEDURES

5.1 Administrative Leave (Leave with Pay)

5.1.1 Full-time executive and exempt staff employees who wish to pursue full-time programs of study, training, or experience related to their position at the University may be granted administrative leave for a maximum of 12 consecutive calendar months. Administrative leave is not considered a reward for outstanding service but is a part of a professional development plan designed to improve the employee's service to the University. The granting of administrative leave is made upon recommendation of the President with approval of the Board of Trustees.

5.1.2 By accepting administrative leave, the employee certifies their agreement to return to the University and complete at least one full year of service following the conclusion of the approved leave period. Employees who fail to complete one year of university service following the conclusion of the administrative leave are required to repay the University the value of the administrative leave pay received during the leave period.

5.1.3 Eligibility for Administrative Leave

5.1.3.1 Full-time executive and exempt staff employees are eligible to apply for administrative leave after three full years of continuous full-time service at the University, provided no other administrative or sabbatical leave with pay or partial pay has been taken during this three-year period.

5.1.4 Application for Administrative Leave

5.1.4.1 Employees requesting administrative leave must file an application at least three calendar months prior to the requested beginning date of the leave. The application shall contain a statement of the applicant's educational, training, or experience plan; the reason for requesting the leave; the benefit of the leave to the University; the period of leave time requested; and other information or data to justify the requested administrative leave. Contact the Office of People and Culture to begin application process.

5.1.4.2 The request must be supported by the employee's direct supervisor, second-level supervisor, and appropriate Vice President/Provost for submission to the President. The President will consider the administrative leave application and, if supportive, will present the request to the Board of Trustees for their review and action.

5.1.4.3 Administrative leave requests are subject to availability of funds and anticipated impact on programs, services, and processes.

UTAH VALLEY UNIVERSITY Policies and Procedures

5.1.5 Pay during Administrative Leave

Pay for employees on approved administrative leave is calculated on the annual base salary for the period during which the leave takes place as follows:

- 1) Three consecutive years of service—30 percent of base salary
- 2) Four consecutive years of service—40 percent of base salary
- 3) Five consecutive years of service—50 percent of base salary
- 4) Six or more consecutive years of service—60 percent of base salary

5.1.6 Employees on approved administrative leave may utilize accrued vacation leave in combination with administrative leave to receive pay up to 100 percent of their annual base salary during the administrative leave.

5.1.7 Employment Status While on Administrative Leave

5.1.7.1 While on administrative leave, executives and exempt staff employees may be eligible for all general salary adjustments for which they would otherwise qualify.

5.1.8 Employees on administrative leave retain UVU benefits in accordance with UVU benefits plans and policies.

5.1.9 While on administrative leave, an employee may not accept or perform any compensated additional assignments for UVU.

5.2 Community Service Leave (Leave with Pay)

5.2.1 Each calendar year, full-time executive and exempt/non-exempt staff and faculty employees are allowed the equivalent of one working day (eight hours for staff and seven hours for faculty) of community service leave with pay to perform voluntary, uncompensated community service. This voluntary community service may be performed on an individual basis or with a group.

5.2.2 Employees must request and receive prior approval from their supervisor for community service leave. Such community service leave for faculty must not alter or interfere with course schedules, content, or delivery, in accordance with UVU Policy 601.

5.3 Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA)

5.3.1 In accordance with federal law, the University provides leave for eligible employees pursuant to the provisions under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 and all subsequent amendments.

UTAH VALLEY UNIVERSITY Policies and Procedures

5.3.2 People and Culture is responsible for providing information about FMLA to university employees and administering UVU's FMLA program in compliance with law.

5.3.3 Employees shall contact People and Culture for information on eligibility requirements, leave entitlements and protections, employee and institutional rights and responsibilities, and leave usage.

5.3.4 Supervisors are responsible to report, as soon as possible, to People and Culture any employee request for sick leave due to illness or injury requiring more than three (3) consecutive full-calendar days for substantiation of illness or injury and consideration of FMLA requirements.

5.3.5 If an employee is on sick leave for a period of more than three (3) consecutive full-calendar days or for a reason that qualifies as a serious health condition, such leave may be designated as Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) leave in accordance with the FMLA.

5.3.5.1 People and Culture will notify the employee in writing that such leave is being designated as FMLA leave. People and Culture will make this written notification within five business days of becoming aware that such sick leave may also qualify as FMLA leave.

5.3.5.1.1 All conditions of FMLA leave, including certification and notice of intent to return to work, may apply to such leave.

5.3.5.1.2 Under certain circumstances, the University may retroactively designate sick leave as FMLA leave.

5.3.5.1.3 Leave under the FMLA is not an additional leave; rather, it is provided concurrently with sick leave.

5.4 Funeral Leave (Leave with Pay)

5.4.1 Full-time employees may request funeral leave in the case of the death of an immediate family member (Section 3.3). Such requests must be provided to the employee's supervisor at the earliest possible time. The immediate supervisor may grant funeral leave to the extent they deem reasonable and necessary up to three (3) working days.

5.4.2 Funeral leave may be granted by an immediate supervisor to full-time employees (typically one day or less) to attend the funeral or memorial service for a university colleague. The granting of such leave is subject to the operational needs of the department as determined by the immediate supervisor.

UTAH VALLEY UNIVERSITY Policies and Procedures

5.5 Jury and Witness Leave (Leave with Pay)

5.5.1 Jury and witness leave with pay may be granted to full-time employees for the period during which the employee is absent from work in compliance with an official requirement to appear for jury service or a subpoena to appear as a witness at a trial, deposition, or other official proceeding. Employees must notify their immediate supervisor prior to the leave.

5.5.2 Leave time for jury and witness service covers only time lost while actually engaged in jury service or in attendance as a witness and reasonable travel to and from the place of such service or attendance.

5.5.3 When feasible, employees are expected to report daily to work before and/or after jury service or attendance as a witness.

5.5.4 Employees are not entitled to jury and witness leave when the employee appears in court or participates in a court proceeding on their own behalf.

5.6.4.2 Employees on approved leave without pay may not accept or perform any compensated assignments for UVU.

5.6.5 Intention to Return

5.6.5.1 Leave without pay shall not be granted unless the employee fully expects to return to active service at the expiration of the leave. For leave without pay of less than nine months, the employee is expected to notify the University of their intention to return at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the leave. For leave without pay of nine months or longer, the employee is expected to notify the University of their intention to return at least 60 days prior to the expiration of the leave. Failure to provide timely notification of intention to return may result in voluntary termination by resignation.

5.6.6 Status upon Return

5.6.6.1 An employee who has been granted a leave of absence without pay and who returns to active service on or before the expiration of the leave is entitled 1) to a position in the same classification or status and at the same level of seniority as the position they had at the commencement of the leave, and 2) to the amount of sick and/or vacation leave they had accrued at the commencement of the leave.

5.7 Medical Maternity Leave (Leave with Pay)

5.7.1 Full-time employees who give birth are eligible for up to six consecutive calendar weeks of paid medical maternity leave, beginning immediately upon the birth of the child, due to the medical necessity of recovering from childbirth. Employees giving birth shall contact People and Culture and provide requested documentation.

5.7.1.1 Medical maternity leave may be used only in a single block of up to six consecutive weeks, not intermittently. Extensions of medical maternity leave beyond the six consecutive weeks will not be granted when the six consecutive weeks includes paid holidays or campus closures or, for faculty, non-faculty working days (such as breaks between semesters or summer).

UTAH VALLEY UNIVERSITY Policies and Procedures

5.7.1.2 Upon termination, an employee will not be compensated for any unused medical maternity leave.

5.7.2 Medical maternity leave begins immediately upon the birth of the child, regardless of the employee's eligibility for FMLA leave. Medical maternity leave will run concurrently with FMLA leave.

5.7.3 FMLA-eligible employees may take a total of up to 12 weeks of job-protected medical leave in a rolling calendar year for pregnancy-related conditions, birth, and/or baby bonding. If an FMLA-eligible employee requires more than six weeks for medical recovery from childbirth, the additional leave shall be charged to any remaining FMLA leave in the following order:

- 2) Sick leave (paid)
- 3) Personal leave (paid)
- 4) Compensatory time, if available (paid)

5.8 Military Leaves

5.8.1 Annual Military Training (Leave with Pay)

5.8.1.1 Eligible university employees who are members of the National Guard or organized reserve branch of the United States uniformed services are entitled to a leave with pay not to exceed fifteen (15) working days per year for time spent on duty at annual encampments, rifle competitions, or other duties in connection with the reserve training and instruction requirements of the United States uniformed services or National Guard.

UTAH VALLEY UNIVERSITY Policies and Procedures

5.8.2.2 Upon honorable completion of the period of service, an employee on military leave shall be restored to the position of employment held when the leave commenced or an equivalent position with equivalent employment benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment, provided that

5.8.2.2.1 The employee gave their supervisor advance notice of such service and provided People and Culture with a copy of their orders prior to the beginning of their leave;

5.8.2.2.2 The cumulative length of such leave and all prior military leaves from the University do not exceed five (5) years (unless exceptions outlined in USERRA apply);

5.9.2 Parental leave is separate from medical maternity leave. An eligible employee may receive medical maternity leave to recover from childbirth prior to receiving parental leave.

5.9.3 Parental leave is available immediately upon the birth or adoption of a child and must be used within six (6) months of the adoption or birth of the child. Parental leave must be used in full-day increments and may be used intermittently or in a block of ten (10) consecutive workdays. A work from home agreement does not extend the period during which parental leave may be used.

5.9.4 When a request for parental leave is foreseeable, the employee shall notify their supervisor at least 30 days before the employee intends to take parental leave. Failure to provide 30 days' notice may result in the employee's request for parental leave being denied.

5.9.5 Upon termination, an employee will not be compensated for any unused parental leave.

UTAH VALLEY UNIVERSITY Policies and Procedures

5.9.6 Parental leave will run concurrently with FMLA leave. FMLA-eligible employees may take a total of up to 12 weeks of job-protected medical leave in a rolling calendar year for pregnancy-related conditions, birth, and/or baby bonding. UTAH VALLEY UNIVERSITY Policies and Procedures they are needed to care for an immediate family member with an illness, injury, or serious health condition.

5.12.2 As possible, employees should arrange routine health care appointments during nonworking hours or try to schedule appointments at times that minimize disruption of work. Whenever possible, supervisors should be notified of such appointments in advance.

5.12.3 Accrual of Sick Leave

5.12.3.1 Full-time employees accrue sick leave at the rate of one-half day per semi-monthly pay period (faculty 3.5 hours, executives/staff 4 hours). Full-time employees with reduced assignments (less than 1.0 FTE) accrue sick leave in proportion to the reduced assignment.

5.12.3.2 Sick leave accrual begins for new full-time employees with their first semi-monthly pay period.

5.12.3.3 Unused sick leave accrues continuously, and the balance remaining at the end of the leave year carries forward to the next leave year.

5.12.3.4 Full-time employees hired directly from another Utah System of Higher Education institution will be able to transfer any accrued sick leave balance (maximum of 80 hours).

5.12.3.5 Upon termination from the University, an employee will not be compensated for any accrued sick leave. Full-time employees who are rehired after termination (voluntary or involuntary) from the University shall not have sick leave accrued during prior university employment reinstated.

5.12.4 Use of Sick Leave

5.12.4.1 Sick leave may not be used for vacation purposes; however, employees may choose to use vacation or personal leave for absences otherwise eligible for sick leave.

5.12.4.2 Sick leave requested in excess of the amount accrued shall be charged to any remaining leave in the following order:

- 1) Personal leave (paid)
- 2) Compensatory time, if available (paid)

- 4) If eligible, any remaining FMLA leave (unpaid)

UTAH VALLEY UNIVERSITY Policies and Procedures

5.12.4.3 The University reserves the right to require medical documentation for absences due to illness or injury and designate leave in accordance with FMLA.

5.12.4.4 If an employee is on sick leave for a period of more than three (3) consecutive full-calendar days or for a reason that qualifies as a serious health condition, such leave may be designated as Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) leave in accordance with the FMLA.

5.12.4.4.1 People and Culture will notify the employee in writing that such leave is being designated as FMLA leave. People and Culture will make this written notification within five business days of becoming aware that such sick leave may also qualify as FMLA leave.

5.12.4.4.2 All conditions of FMLA leave, including certification and notice of intent to return to work, may apply to such leave.

5.12.4.4.3 Under certain circumstances, the University may retroactively designate sick leave as FMLA leave.

5.12.4.4.4 Leave under the FMLA is not an additional leave; sick leave runs concurrently with FMLA leave.

5.12.4.5 An employee may not use their sick leave for longer than 120 consecutive calendar days without applying for Long-Term Disability and Social Security Disability. Approval or denial of disability benefits may affect an employee's use of accrued sick leave.

5.12.5 Sick Leave Conversion to Vacation Leave

5.12.5.1 After a full-time executive, exempt staff, or non-exempt staff employee has accumulated 18 unused sick leave days (144 hours), that employee is eligible to convert a limited amount of accrued sick leave to vacation leave at the beginning of the next calendar year.

5.12.5.2 Qualifying employees shall be notified annually by People and Culture of the opportunity to convert unused sick leave days accumulated during the previous calendar year on a two-to-one basis for a maximum of four vacation days (32 hours). Notification shall include instructions for submitting a request for sick leave conversion.

5.12.5.3 Employee requests for sick leave conversion must be submitted by February 15 each year.

5.12.6 Extended Sick Leave

5.12.6.1 In exceptional cases, after all personal leave, compensatory time (if applicable), accrued sick leave, and earned vacation leave has been exhausted, an extended sick leave with pay may be authorized by the employee's supervising executive leader upon recommendation of the Vice President for People and Culture. This leave is subject to the following:

UTAH VALLEY UNIVERSITY Policies and Procedures

5.12.6.1.1 The employee is in good standing with the University.

5.12.6.1.2 Extended sick leave is based on a serious health condition of the employee supported by medical documentation provided to People and Culture. Extended sick leave is not available for the care of a member of the employee's immediate family with an illness, injury, or serious health condition.

5.12.6.1.3 Extended sick leave may not exceed thirty (30) working days unless authorized by the employee's senior executive leader (Provost or vice president) upon recommendation of the Vice President for People and Culture and the employee's supervising executive leader.

5.12.6.1.4 An employee may not use any combination of personal leave, compensatory time (if applicable), accrued sick leave, earned vacation leave, and extended sick leave longer than a continuous 4 months (120 days) without applying for Long-Term Disability and Social Security Disability.

5.12.6.1.5 An employee may not use any combination of personal leave, compensatory time (if applicable), accrued sick leave, earned vacation leave, and extended sick leave longer than a continuous six (6) consecutive month period.

5.12.6.1.6 If an employee is on sick leave and extended sick leave for a period of more than three (3) consecutive full-calendar days or for a reason that qualifies as a serious health condition, such leave may be designated as Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) leave in accordance with the FMLA.

5.12.6.1.7 In no event shall extended sick leave be granted for a period extending beyond the earliest day on which benefits under either the University's disability insurance program or the Social Security Act are expected to become payable to the employee.

5.12.6.2 If the employee returns to work or terminates employment before the expiration of authorized extended sick leave, the unused portion of the leave will be canceled.

5.13 Vacation (Leave with Pay)

5.13.1 Full-time executive and exempt/nonexempt staff employees accrue vacation leave time and are encouraged to take vacation leave periodically as approved in advance by their immediate supervisor.

5.13.2 Use of accrued vacation leave shall be arranged in advance and authorized by the responsible supervisor so that the efficiency and effectiveness of the organizational unit is not compromised.

5.13.2.1 Vacation leave may be used with the approval of the supervisor upon completion of two (2) full semi-monthly periods of satisfactory employment.

5.13.3.4 Exempt staff accrue vacation based on their date of employment as follows. For each three-year step, the increased rate for vacation accrual begins in the first month following the initial vacation leave service date. For example, if an employee begins working on July 1, 2020, the employee will accrue at the 0 to 3 years rate until July 1, 2023, when the employee will begin accruing at the 4 to 7 years rate.

5.13.4 Payment for Unused Accrued Vacation Leave

5.13.4.1 Upon termination from the University or upon a change of assignment from a vacation leave eligible position to a non-vacation leave eligible position (such as a change of assignment from exempt staff to faculty), an employee shall be paid for all accrued vacation leave as of the termination date.

5.13.4.2 Payment for unused vacation leave is computed by multiplying the terminating employee's current hourly rate of pay by the actual number of accrued hours. Payment for unused vacation leave shall not exceed the maximum of 240 hours plus the employee's current annual accrued vacation leave.

5.13.4.3 Authorized compensation for unused vacation leave is normally included in the employee's final pay.

5.13.4.4 Payment for unused vacation leave is a form of deferred compensation and, as such, cannot be withheld from an eligible individual who has been terminated from employment for any reason, but is subject to deductions and offsets authorized by university policy or by legal requirements.
