Policies and Procedures

POLICY TITLE	University Awards of Excellence and Other University Awards	Policy Number	113
Section	Governance, Organization and General Information	Approval Date	December 11, 2023
Subsection	Governance and Organization	Effective Date	December 11, 2023
Responsible Office	Office of the President and the Office of the Vice President of People and Culture

1.0 PURPOSE

1.1 Recognition of exceptional employee achievements, contributions, and service is an important part of both valuing individual accomplishments and demonstrating the University’s commitment to excellence.

2.0 REFERENCES

3.0 DEFINITIONS

3.1 Good standing: Describes the status of an employee who has no disciplinary action imposed or pending.

4.0 POLICY

4.1 The University Awards of Excellence are used to recognize and reward exceptional employee achievements, contributions, and service to the Utah Valley University community.

4.2 The University Awards of Excellence are awarded by the Board of Trustees, the President, vice presidents, deans, and employee governance groups (Faculty Senate and PACE—Professional Association of College Employees).

4.3 For other campus awards not covered under this policy, the award amounts may not exceed that of the Board of Trustees’ award. Exceptions to this shall be approved by the President’s Council.

4.4 Employees can receive only one award of excellence per year. If an employee is nominated and selected for more than one award in a year, the higher award shall prevail and be awarded.

5.6 Compensation and Funding

5.6.1 The amount of compensation provided with awards may not exceed the applicable percentage of the amount awarded in the Board of Trustees award of excellence (see Tables 1 and 2 in section 5.4.2). The actual award amount for the Board of Trustees award is determined annually by the President’s Council; actual award amounts for all other awards in this policy will be approved by the President’s Council based on percentages as shown in Tables 1 and 2.

UTAH VALLEY UNIVERSITY Policies and Procedures

5.6.2 Funding for the Board of Trustees, Presidential, Faculty Senate and PACE Awards of Excellence shall be provided centrally from university funds. Divisional Awards of Excellence shall be funded from divisional funds.

5.6.3 Awards are given as a one-time payment that is processed through payroll and that is subject to applicable laws and benefits.

5.7 Award Titles

5.7.1 Award titles shall be identified by the name of the awarding entity, officer, or division, and other information that clarifies the nature of the award.

5.7.2 Only the awards defined in this policy may contain the word “excellence.” Other awards not covered by this policy, which are given by other university entities, shall not contain the word “excellence.”

5.8 Awards of Excellence Nomination Procedures

5.8.1 The following are the steps to be followed for the nominations process and events planning. Actual dates will be approved annually by the President’s Council and published annually by the awarding entities.

5.8.2 Nominations for awards of excellence are submitted to the awarding entity, officer, or division.

5.8.2.1 Nominations must be submitted on the approved application form.

5.8.2.2 Before names of award candidates are submitted, the nominating party must consult each nominee’s immediate supervisor to verify the employee is in good standing.

5.8.3 The nominating party must submit the names of potential recipients for awards of excellence for review to ensure eligibility as follows:

5.8.3.1 For staff nominations, the nominating party must submit to People and Culture the names of staff that are being considered for awards. People and Culture will review and confirm the potential recipients’ good standing as employees and will report findings to the awarding entity, officer, or division and the nominating party.

5.8.3.2 For faculty nominations, the nominating party must submit names of faculty that are being considered for awards to the Office of Academic Affairs, which will review and confirm the potential recipients’ good standing as employees and will report findings to awarding entity, officer, or division and the nominating party.
